

How the Vulcan Death Grip Changes Everything

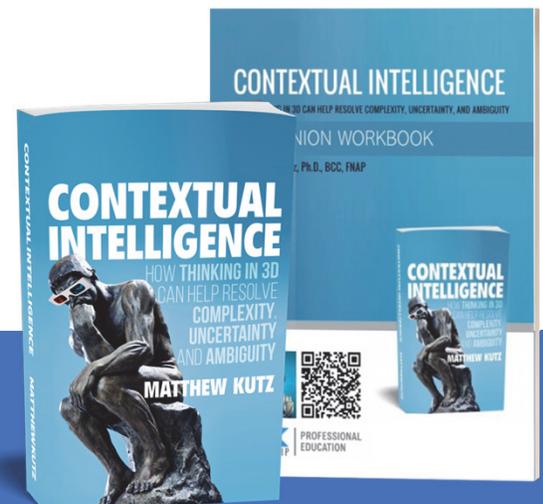

This engaging keynote, first introduced in my TED^x Talk, is built around a humorous story from my adolescence—when my dad used Mr. Spock’s iconic Vulcan Death Grip to teach me a life-changing lesson about situational awareness. That lesson became the foundation of my career, an award-winning book, and the groundbreaking principles of Contextual Intelligence—a powerful framework that equips leaders, managers, and teams to navigate uncertainty, adapt to change, and thrive in complex environments.!

KEY TAKE-A-WAYS

- Using 3 meta-skills to enhance decision-making and gain clarity
- Integrating the three dimensions of time (3D Thinking Framework™) to add context and insight to your decision-making
- Practical ways to navigate complex and turbulent situations
